A STRIKE ON THE ST. PAUL.

ENGINEMEN, SWITCHMEN, BRAKEMEN AND CONDUCTORS

Join the Strike Because the Road Handles Burlington Freight—Pan-Handle Switchmen Follow Suit—Grievance Committees Call on the Managers—Notes.

CHICAGO, April 2.—The engineers, firemen, switchmen, brakemen and a large number of the conductors on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul struck at midnight. The strike includes the employees of all the divisions entering, in Chicago, both freight and passenger. The last passenger train manned by a Brotherhood crew left the Union depot at 11 o'clock last night.

This bold move was made at a special meeting held Friday night at No. 703 West Lake street, at which fully seven hundred men were present, including engineers, firemen, brakemen, conductors and switchmen. The meeting was an excited and enthusiastic one and as speech after speech was made the excitement increased and when a motion was made to stop every wheel on the road at midnight it was carried with a whoop that was heard blocks away.

This strike may include every division of the St. Paul system and is the result of Friday's work at the yards. The men are incensed over the action of the company in employing new engineers and firemen and conductors who have acted as engineers, to take their places. Many of the men regarded Thursday's strike as a trivial affair and expected that the company would gracefully concede and make a binding promise not to receive Burlington cars. Instead, the company accepted the situation and commenced filling the places of the strikers at once. This is the real cause of a strike that promises to be a long and desperate.

It was expected by the officials of the company that a committee would be appointed at Friday night's meeting, and a conference held at which a satisfactory settlement could be reached. A tacit agreement of this kind was made Friday afternoon, and the officers of the road met at Division Superintendent Collins' office to await the result of the meeting. These gentlemen waited and waited, but the committee never came. In the excitement of the occasion the committee was overlooked by the strikers, and after waiting until nearly midnight the officials went to their hotels unconscious of the fact that their road was tied up.

At 12:15 o'clock the news of the strike was taken to them by a reporter, and a long consultation was held. Mr. Earling refused to be interviewed.

The strike was not declared by any organization or Brotherhood, at least not formally. The men say that it is entirely an individual action on their part.

If the strike extends no further the effect will be the practical suspension of business on the entire system.

The Pan-Handle switchmen struck work at midnight. They had been on the verge of a strike for several hours, owing to dissatisfaction resulting from the receiving of a Burlington train. The men all quit at 12 o'clock. The engineers took their engines out of the round houses and commenced work, but the switchmen quit again at 12:30 o'clock and declared that not a man would go to work after 7 o'clock when the day men were due to go on duty.

The grievance committee of locomotive engineers on the lake shore called upon Superintendent Amsden, Friday, to see if an arrangement could be made whereby a strike of that road could be averted. They informed Mr. Amsden that the non-union switchmen on his road had been induced to join the Switchmen's union or act in harmony with the union men. They (the engineers) did not like to involve the company in a strike, and therefore hoped that it would issue orders to its agents not to handle Burlington freight, as the switchmen were determined to strike if the company persisted in handling such freight. The committee would not state what the engineers would do in case they were required to handle Burlington freight, but it was apparent that it was their intention to lend all the aid they could to the striking switchmen.

Superintendent Amsden informed the committee, that while it was his earnest desire to avoid trouble with the men on the Lake Shore, he could not under the Interstate law refuse to handle Burlington freight. Besides the Lake Shore the managers of several other roads were called upon by the chairman of the grievance committee of engineers on their lines, and requested to refuse to handle Burlington freight to avoid trouble with their switchmen. All these committees pretended to be actuated by a sole desire to avert serious injury to the business interests of the country.

None of the managers, however, made any promise, and most of them stated that they meant to obey the law. They had made all reasonable concessions, and if the business interests of the country were paralyzed by the unlawful and unreasonable demands of their men the people would know who was responsible for it and act accordingly.

A movement is on foot to bring about a meeting of the general managers and general superintendent of the various roads centering in this city to take concerted action. The management of the Burlington road decided to call upon the various roads running east and west for assistance in raising the freight blockade in the yards. In pursuance of this decision trains were made up for the Fort Wayne, Lake Shore, Rock Island and Illinois Central, and will be offered at the transfer point of those roads during the day.

The government has prepared legal papers in blank to serve without delay upon any road that may refuse to receive its cars, in accordance with the provisions of the Interstate commerce law. At the offices of the company it is stated that assurances have been received from the Fort Wayne, Lake Shore and Alton roads that they will handle all Burlington freight offered regardless of results. This indicates that the roads are making up their mind that they must stand or fall together.

Chairman Hoge, of the grievance committee of the Burlington road, who is at the head of strike operations in the absence of Chief Arthur, practically admitted that the engineers, firemen and switchmen of these, and perhaps four other roads, would go out, thus precipitating one of the greatest strikes ever known in Chicago. From what was gathered from Mr. Hoge's carefully guarded talk, a feeling of desperation has seized the men, and a move of the Burlington to force its cars on other roads, will complete the climax and send the men out without even bringing the grievance committees of the roads together, to formally order the cessation of work.

It is an understood thing, and the Brotherhood has determined to cut Chicago completely off from the great west as far as it lies in its power. The roads marked for a strike are the Chicago & Alton, the Fort Wayne, Pan-Handle and Rock Island and the Santa Fe roads. The men on these systems were struck with the strike fever more than a week ago, and it was decided that the only remedy the Brotherhood has had will be in bringing the pressure of the officials of other railroad systems to force the Burlington to come to terms—a measure which the Burlington's competitors would resort to in order to avoid trouble.

LYNCHERS AT WORK.

An Alabama Mob Metes Out Justice to a Negro Murderer.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 2.—Judge Lynch got in his work at Hayneville, Ala., Thursday night and avenged one of the most dastardly and cold-blooded murders in the criminal history of the state. The hour was 12 o'clock, midnight. About two hundred armed and masked men rode into the quiet little town of Hayneville, went to the county jail and demanded possession of Theodore Calloway, the colored man who murdered Mr. Mitchell Gresham, near Sandy Ridge, Lowndes county, a few days ago. They forced the jailer to surrender the keys to the jail, and then they went to the cell where the murderer was sleeping and took him out too much a terrible death and quickly pay the penalty of the crime.

The crowd took him out in front of the court house and hanged him to the limb of a tree. His body was riddled with bullets and left dangling in the air until morning, when it was turned over to his parents, who had gone to Hayneville to be present at the preliminary trial, which was set for hearing Friday. It was taken back to Sandy Ridge for burial. The lynchers having brought their frightful mission to a successful issue, rode out of town and disappeared as quickly as they had come. Nothing is known as to their identity except that they were friends of the murdered man.

The history of the crime for which the colored man was hurried into eternity is still fresh in the minds of the public. Gresham and the colored man had a dispute about a rubber coat one day last week. Gresham and his brother met the colored man in the public road with a shotgun on his shoulder. Gresham asked him what he was going to do with the gun, and he said, "I will show you damn quick;" whereupon he leveled the gun and fired. The charge blew the back part of the young man's head off, causing instant death.

Booming Governor Alger.

DETROIT, Mich., April 2.—Ex-Governor Alger arrived home from California last night. He was met at the depot by the Alger club, 1,000 strong, three bands, the light guards, employees of the Peninsular company and about one thousand newsmen. After being escorted to his house he was welcomed in a speech by Allan Frazier, president of the club, and shook hands with about two thousand citizens. The demonstration is part of the Alger boom for president.

All the Result of Smoking.

EFFINGHAM, Ill., April 2.—Mrs. Henry Lane, wife of a farmer living a few miles from here, was killed by her husband last night, and he afterwards committed suicide. From the story of the children, it seems Lane started to light his pipe near the kitchen fire when his wife objected. The quarrel grew violent, and Lane seized a knife and stabbed his wife fatally in the side. When he observed the effect of his murderous blow he went out in his barn and hanged himself.

He Fulfilled His Promise.

CARLEVILLE, Ill., April 2.—David Wineland, who was shot at Girard, Thursday afternoon by William H. Dietz, the twelve-year-old boy, has died from his wounds. The boy was brought here and placed in jail. He is perfectly cool and self-possessed, and acknowledged that he did the shooting. When told of the result of his act he seemed satisfied, and remarked that he had only fulfilled a promise he had made to his dying father.

Stabbed by a Tramp Printer.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 2.—Marshall Williams, who was stabbed by Charles Nolan, a tramp printer, whom he was arresting, is lying at his residence unable to move. The knife-blade entered his abdomen, just missing the femoral artery. Nolan intended to disembowel him. The prisoner has been "carrying the banner" for several years, and claims his home at Bellefonte, Pennsylvania.

Ice on the Missouri.

PIERRE, Dak., April 2.—The ice moved a few hundred feet Friday but the river began to fall. The Cheyenne river opened Friday. The Indians report it high and dangerous. The Cheyenne break-up was expected down last night. The steamer Terry fourteen miles above here, and safe thus far, but the gorge may break her from her moorings.

Indicted for Murder.

VAN BUREN, Ark., April 2.—The grand jury has returned an indictment against United States Deputy Marshal Sam Wingo for manslaughter. Wingo killed John L. Yonson a few weeks ago while trying to arrest him.

State Conventions.

DENVER, Col., April 2.—The Republican state convention to nominate delegates to the Chicago convention will be held at Pueblo May 5 and the convention to nominate a state ticket will meet in this city, September 25.

Insurance Company Goes Under.

NEW ORLEANS, April 2.—The Hope Insurance company of this city at a meeting yesterday resolved to go into liquidation. No statement as to the condition of the concern is made public.

HOW THEY ARE COMING.

R. G. DUN & COMPANY'S WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE.

Trade Dull With a Hopeful Feeling in Almost all Sections—Iron Business Seems to Have Reached Hard-Pan—Money Close. Business Failures for the Week.

NEW YORK, April 2.—R. G. Dun & Company, in their weekly review of trade, say:

Dullness is the feature in business, but dullness with a hopeful feeling in almost every quarter. The monetary pressure which has almost invariably commenced about this time, does not appear, and the dangers which were by experienced bankers apprehended seem to have vanished.

There is just now so little anxiety about the money market that little is said of the delay of the bond purchase bill by amendments in the senate, which may possibly defeat it. The possibility of gold exports does not seem visibly nearer than it seemed weeks ago, and considerable purchases of securities on foreign account are reported. Money on call at New York has ruled at 2 to 2 1/2 per cent., and foreign exchange has declined from $4.88 to $4.87 1/2. The more pacific advices from Europe render the outlook more satisfactory.

But the prevailing dullness is everywhere felt. Many attribute it to recent storms and unfavorable weather, which doubtless affect some trades materially. Many feel the influence of existing or recent strikes; the railroad difficulty at the west does not abate, but the features most widely observed is the disposition of customers to act with great conservatism, buying only as they are compelled to buy, and this appears in many of the leading branches of trade. It is in part the fruit of expectation that prices may go lower, and in part due to perception that the demand for consumption has slackened and may diminish still more.

The failures of bank or bankers in North Carolina, Mobile and Newburg has caused no disturbance, though it is recognized that many weak spots must always be found after a period of extraordinary speculative activity. Yet on the aggregate failures are not more numerous nor more important than those of the last or the previous year, which clearly indicates greater soundness in legitimate commerce since the number of failures of speculative origin has increased. Prices are maintained with remarkable steadiness; for many years it has not happened that the general level of prices has changed as little as it has during the first quarter of 1888.

Hard-pan seems to have been reached in the iron business, in the judgment of one of the most successful concerns, for the Thomas company at last announces $20 as the contract price for the year for the best anthracite. Rates for lake ore are not yet announced, but are expected to be about $6.25 for No. 1 Bessemer. The complete collapse of the coal pool, with reduction of the price to $1.10 at ovens, and a lowering of rail rates, give producers a better chance in western Pennsylvania; but rail rates are also reduced from Alabama, and it is estimated that the price at furnace for best mill iron averages $12.65 at Birmingham. Bar iron is unsettled, and sales of best refined at $1.55 are reported, with no eastern sales of rails. At western mills $35.50 is quoted. The Anthracite companies, it is reported, have no legal agreement, but will retain rates through the year, now about $1 for egg.

The dry goods trade reports fairly satisfactory sales, and the Arlington auction realized fair prices for cottons, but it is reported losses to makers on woolsens. The jobbing trade is irregular, but storms and unreasonable weather, with difficulties both as to deliveries and collections in western districts affected by railroad strikes, are named as causes. The drug trade is in unfavorable shape; purchases being reduced as far as possible, and similar features appear in the markets for sugar and many other products which may be affected by a change of duties. The wool market, however, though dull, is steady for the better grades, while other qualities sell moderately at concessions.

Reports from various parts of the country show a general feeling of confidence, though a lack of present activity is commonly noticed, with some closeness in the money market and tardiness in collections in the north-west. Rates for money are about 6 per cent. at Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and Chicago; at the latter strong. The treasury has changed its cash balance only $100,000, and its deposits still less during the week, and the only point of unfavorable augury as to the money market is that domestic exports from New York for March are 22 per cent. below last year's, while imports increased a little.

The business failures during the last seven days number, for the United States, 179; for Canada, 42; total, 221, compared with 212 last week, and 223 for the corresponding week in 1887.

WHITE GIRLS AND INDIANS.

Miss Fellows Contemplated Writing a Novel and Wanted a Reputation.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 2.—Word received from Pierre, Dak., says that friends of Miss Fellows in that city have been informed that she contemplated writing a novel, and recognizing that a reputation was necessary to insure its success, had deliberately worked up the sensation regarding her marriage with Chaska, the Indian, in order to get herself talked about. Her forthcoming novel will be an Indian story in which there will be a situation precisely similar to that which she has been acting. There is a man named Campbell on the reservation, who is a quarter Indian, but whether Miss Fellows has married him or not cannot be learned until a messenger can cross the river, which may not be for several days.

A Case in Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 2.—Miss Minnie Sims, the daughter of Thomas Sims, a wealthy citizen of Morgan county, was on Wednesday last to J. L. Lamar, a full-blooded Cherokee Indian of Vinita, I. T. Lamar attended Emory college in this state and is well educated. The young couple are now on their way to Indian Territory to begin housekeeping according to the customs of the country.

Packing House Burned.

WICHITA, Kan., April 2.—The most disastrous fire in this city since the destruction of the stock yards, last fall, occurred Friday night in the burning of Joseph Acherman's packing house. Not only was the building entirely destroyed, but also all the machinery and a large quantity of meats. The origin of the fire is unknown. There was no fire in the boiler or office, and the place was for the present shut down. The loss is over $50,000. The insurance is for less than half that amount, mostly in eastern companies.

EXPOSITION DEDICATION.

The New Cincinnati Centennial Buildings Formally Turned Over.

CINCINNATI, April 2.—Our citizens were aroused to a sense of the magnitude and splendor of our centennial by the dedication of the new buildings. The advent had been well advertised, and in consequence there was a large outpouring of people. Everyone seemed pleased with the new structures. The presence of school children in large numbers, gallily decked, was charming.

Promptly at 2:30 p. m., the centennial commissioners proceeded from the Mechanics' Institute to the exposition buildings. A detachment of police acted as an escort. Following them was a delegation from the chamber of commerce and the Lincoln club, headed by a band of music.

Exercises began at 3 p. m. in the Washington park building. The program was as follows:

Ode.
Chorus of school children and Cincinnati orchestra, under the direction of Professor Junkerman.
Prayer—Rev. Dr. George P. Hays.
Delivery of buildings by contractors to commissioners—J. M. Blair.
Dedictory remarks—Mayor Smith.
Chorus, "America"—School children, audience and orchestra.

At the close of these exercises the commissioners proceeded over the new Elm street bridge to the machinery hall, on Plum street, where the exercises were continued as follows:

Music—Selection of National airs—Cincinnati orchestra.
Prayer—Rev. Dr. Isaac M. Wise.
Delivery of buildings by contractors to commissioners.
Dedictory remarks.
After exercises in this building the commissioners proceeded to Music hall, where the ceremonies concluded as follows:
Chorus—"Praise the Lord," school children.
Prayer—Rev. I. W. Joyce.
Dedictory remarks.
Chorus—"My Native Land," school children.
Doxology—Chorus and audience.

THE RICH HILL DISASTER.

Twenty-One Now Dead and More Expected to Follow.

RICH HILL, Mo., April 2.—The list of killed in the coal mine explosion Thursday has reached twenty-one and nine of the eighteen injured are expected to die. The following is the latest authentic list of the dead:

Whites—George May, G. McPherson, Frank Lawler, Joshua Trumble, John Roberts, J. C. Neptune, John Leffler, Charles Kay, John Gray, Bruce Brown, L. R. Dixon, Gibson McFerron.
Colored—Charles Smith, George Block, C. Black, W. Black, H. Sheppard, Fred Henderson, W. H. Hill, Alex. White.

WILL JOIN HARPER.

Ben. Hopkins Receives a Sentence of Seven Years and Ten Months.

CINCINNATI, April 2.—Benjamin Hopkins, the second and last Fidelity bank officer found guilty of violating the United States banking laws, was brought from the county jail to the United States court at 10 a. m., and on motion of District Attorney Burnet sentenced to the penitentiary by Judge Sage for seven years and ten months. Judge Sage, in the delivery of the sentence, touched upon the matter of a pardon by the president. It is uncertain when Hopkins will be taken to Columbus.

ALLIANCE, O., April 2.—Frank Dietrick prepared himself a preparation of whisky and poke berries for the rheumatism last evening. His daughter, Anna, a young lady aged about twenty years, supposing it to be the pure, unadulterated essence of rye, drank a considerable quantity. In a short time the young lady showed alarming symptoms, and but for the timely arrival of a physician would probably have succumbed to the deadly poison. At present writing she is thought to be out of danger.

Tramps Shipped by Freight.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 2.—The city prison at Wichita was filled with tramps, and it was decided to ship them away. Yesterday two box cars on the Frisco road were engaged and crowded full of tramps. The cars were labeled "perishable," and were guarded until the start for the east. There were about one hundred tramps crowded into the two cars. Freight was paid for fifty miles.

The Horrid Men Intruded.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The president and Mrs. Cleveland gave a reception Friday afternoon to the delegates of the International council, as well as to all women connected with the council, either as visitors or individual members. It was a reception for ladies only, but about forty of the sterner sex had the temerity to intrude themselves into the White House.

Found Dead on a Cake of Ice.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., April 2.—A floating cake of ice on which there was the body of a woman, was towed ashore at this place, yesterday. Investigation proved that the body had been in the water about three weeks. It is that of a young woman aged about twenty-five years, rather comely in appearance, with hair cut short, dress of a dark material and merino underwear. The woman is unknown here.

Hayes is Out of Politics.

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—The report that has gained some circulation the last few days to the effect that ex-President Hayes will present the name of Senator Sherman to the National Republican convention in Chicago lacks the elements of truth. Mr. Hayes is outside the pale of Ohio politics, and under so circumstances will be enter it again.

Pithy Points From Washington.

The traffic in whisky militates against all individual enterprise.

The traffic in strong-drink is one that impoverishes many while it builds up the fortunes of a few.

The traffic in intoxicants is essentially a selfish one, and benefits none except those who are engaged in it.

This traffic does nothing to develop the resources of the community, but on contrary develops the latent vices and passions of men.

This traffic adds nothing to the happiness of the community, but on the other hand foments dissension and confusion.

This traffic does nothing to advance the interests of the community, but on the contrary is only an alarmist and a terrorizer.

This traffic presents nothing but a threatening front to intelligence, civilization, civility, morality and religion.

Perils of the Dress-Coat.

[Philadelphia Ledger.]

The dress-coat in March has slain its scores, probably. The name of Judge Waite, it seems, must go upon the catalogue of victims whose first cold and "chill" was caught in the thin and low-cut coat and vest the stylish evening party demands. Mr. Henry C. Carey died from a similar cause—a cold caught in walking home, thinly clad, from a dinner party whence he had expected to ride home.

A Singular Case of Big Head.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 2.—The most singular case of big head on record is reported from Chatham county, the possessor being a colored man named Abner Dorsett. He is of a bright yellow color, has a well-developed face, clear-cut features and an intelligent countenance. Though twenty-two years of age, he is only three and a half feet tall, and weighs less than seventy-five pounds. His head is so heavy that he has never been enabled to walk under it. Its measurement is thirty-two inches in circumference. His arms and legs are very slender, and he can not sit alone. When his head gets unbalanced, he has to push it back with his hand. He doesn't know a letter or figure, but has a good mathematical mind, and can solve mentally almost any problem which may be given him.

Ebenezer Stanyard Gets Unruly.

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—Ebenezer Stanyard, the Mahoning county murderer, now confined in the annex of the penitentiary under sentence, is causing the officials considerable trouble by his ugly and sullen ways. Friday he had an unusually bad spell, and cursed every body that came within reach. Every effort was made to appease him, but without success. This was stood until forbearance ceased to be a virtue, when the deputy warden determined to put a stop to the vile language by taking Stanyard to the ducking tub. They started to the tub, when Stanyard begged off and promised to cease troubling, and thus escaped punishment. Some of the prison officials entertain the belief that he is trying to play insane.

A Bridge at the River's Bottom.

WATERVILLE, O., April 2.—At 6 o'clock Friday morning the Waterville Iron bridge, which is being constructed across the Maumee at this place, tumbled into the river with a sad-lou crash. There was a general stampede for the river by the citizens of Waterville. An eye-witness says that the bridge began settling early in the morning, and slowly carried the span down with it to its resting place in the bottom of the river. It is still resting there in an upright position. It is impossible to estimate the loss.

Wrecked the Wrong Train.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 2.—An attempt was made to wreck the Old Point Comfort express at Woodside. The lock of the switch was broken, the switch thrown and the signal light extinguished. A freight train running ahead of the passenger train dashed into the siding and was wrecked. The express came along shortly afterward, but was stopped in time. Sydney Roach, a tramp, was arrested, and confessed that he broke the switch.

Confidence Woman Arrested.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 2.—Bertha A. Heyman, who is known to the police as the smartest confidence schemer in America, was arrested here yesterday. She was en route to New Orleans, accompanied by a young man who gave his name as W. H. Stanley. On their persons were found a quantity of diamonds and jewelry. They are wanted in Los Angeles for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Guiltless Senators.

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—The senate committee which has been investigating the charges of bribery against Carlin, Dow and Lindsey, has concluded its labors and will make a report next Wednesday. It will practically exonerate all three defendants. Chairman Townsend admits that no testimony has been taken which can affect any member of the senate who has been suspected.

TREASURER TATE IMPEACHED.

Judge G. S. Sharp Appointed to Fill Out the Unexpired Term—The Appointment Confirmed.

The impeachment trial of James W. Tate, the defaulting State Treasurer, was finished Saturday in the Senate at Frankfort.

The judgment was rendered Friday, and is as follows:

The House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Kentucky having exhibited to the Senate of said Commonwealth its several articles of impeachment against James William Tate, Treasurer of said Commonwealth of Kentucky, charging said James William Tate with high crimes and misdemeanors, and said James William Tate having been, under trial by said Senate of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, sitting as a court of impeachment, found guilty as charged in the first, second, third and fourth of said articles of impeachment, of high crimes and misdemeanors, it is therefore ordered and adjudged by the said Senate of Kentucky, sitting as a court of impeachment, that said James William Tate, Treasurer of the State of Kentucky, be and he is hereby declared, according to the Constitution of the State and the vote of this body, to be removed from his office of Treasurer, as aforesaid, and also disqualified to hold any office of honor, trust or profit under the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Saturday, the Senate reconvened as an Impeachment Court and adopted and approved the judgment rendered the day before. The Governor was at once waited upon by a committee and furnished a copy of the judgement of the trial court. He at once sent the name of Judge S. G. Sharp, of Lexington, to the Senate for appointment to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Tate, as State Treasurer, and his appointment was confirmed. Judge Sharpe had already executed a bond as Treasurer pro tem, but will be required to execute another bond before entering upon his duties as permanent Treasurer. His appointment is considered an excellent one. He has been County Judge of Fayette County sometime and is held in high esteem by all who know him.

The Bourbon News says: "A good deal of surprise has been expressed that Judge Sharp should accept the custody of the State Treasury under the circumstances. It was thought that he could make quite as much money out of his present office, without having to give such a large bond. His salary as Judge of Fayette County is $1,500; he makes his own settlements with guardians, &c., which probably pays him about $600 more, and his fees as magistrate and attorney contribute about $200 in addition, making in all $2,300. His salary as Treasurer is $2,400, as Sinking Fund Commissioner $600, and as Commissioner of Penitentiary $200, making in all $3,200. But there is considerable probability that the Legislature will advance the Treasurer's salary to $5,000."

Squabbling at Paris Over a Street.

A special from Paris says: "The squabble over the construction of a street railway in this city has taken a decided turn in favor of the city and against Colonel W. W. Baldwin, President of the Maysville Turnpike Company, in the past few days. The fight was over the right of way through Main street from 'eend to eend,' both Colonel Baldwin and the city of Paris claiming the ownership of said street. At a special meeting of the City Council last Thursday night it was brought to light that a record of 1832 shows that the council of that date gave to the turnpike company the right of way through the city, and that they (the company) should keep Main street in as good repair as any other part of the pike. At Friday night's meeting of council the proposition of company giving the city the street and $2,000 in cash, if the city keep it in order, was rejected, the council producing the above old record. Legal opinions on the question will be heard by the council at their next meeting."

Approaching Meeting of the G. A. R. Veterans.

The annual meeting of the G. A. R. of this State will be held in this city on the 17th and 18th of this month. Preparations are being made for a big time. A large crowd of the veterans will be present. A fund has been raised to aid in entertaining all who may come. The Newport Post will send a big delegation who will be accompanied by a drum corps numbering sixteen members.

A delegation of twenty is coming from Somerset, with Colonel T. Z. Morrow. General Speed S. Fry, of Danville, will be one of the prominent visitors.

Maucke's Reed and Brass Band has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion. Old "Zollicoffer" is being cleaned up and will furnish music of another character.

A grand street parade will take place on the 17th, and the visitors will be given a banquet that evening.

THE Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company has bought the property along Front street, in Foster, Bracken County, with one or two exceptions. Part of the buildings will be moved back and part torn down, to make room for the railroad.

ALLIE THOMPSON arrived Saturday from a sojourn of several months at Los Angeles, Cal., and other points in the West.

THE pastor of the Plymouth Baptist Church, colored, baptized eight persons in the river at the foot of Market street yesterday afternoon.

THE case of Latham against Glascock, appealed from Lewis County, has been affirmed by the Superior Court. Stacy against Coleman & Co., from same county, was reversed.

Mrs. MINNIE COOK fell in the fire at Fox Springs, Fleming County, Saturday, and was burned to death. She had just moved there from Williamstown, Grant County, Ky.

THE services at St. Patrick's Church yesterday were very impressive. The sermon by Rev. Father Kolb was as usual eloquent and instructive. The altars were very tastefully arranged and everything was appropriate to the celebration of Easter.

A TELEGRAM was received in this city yesterday announcing the death of Wm. G. Birney, at Ponce de Leon, Florida. The deceased was formerly engaged in the manufacture of tobacco in this city as a member of the firm of Case & Birney, and was well known here.

Mrs. LUCINDA STROBE died yesterday afternoon at Lewisburg at the age of eighty-two years. She was the widow of Jerry Strobe, and an aunt of Mr. Sam Strobe, the present Constable of that precinct. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Baptist Church at Lewisburg.

THE crowds of negro loafers that frequent the northwest and northeast corners of Third and Market streets are becoming a nuisance. Complaints have been made to the BULLETIN, and we have been asked to call the attention of Marshal Heflin and his deputies to the matter. The ordinance should be enforced.

Mrs. ANN EDMUNDS, widow of Thomas Edmunds, died yesterday morning about 6 o'clock at her home in the Fifth ward. She was eighty-four years of age, and had been in feeble health for several months. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from her late residence. Services by Rev. Thomas Hanford.

MAYSVILLE'S favorite little actress, Cora Van Tassel, will probably commence a three nights' engagement at the opera house Thursday, April 12, with an excellent company and a strong repertoire. The business manager, R. B. Marsh, has written to parties here in regard to the matter, but the engagement has not yet been settled.

CHILDREN have a very peculiar way of expressing themselves at times. A little Paris girl came to the breakfast table the other morning complaining a little. When her father asked her what was the matter, she answered: "Both of my eyes are leaking and one of my noses won't go." The child was suffering from a cold.—Paris Kentuckian.

Mrs. ANN CONLEY, an estimable lady, died Saturday morning at ten o'clock at her home on the Fleming pike, after a lingering illness. She leaves three children, John Conley, of Mayslick, and William and Bridget Conley, of this city. Her remains were interred yesterday afternoon in the cemetery at Washington, after funeral services at St. Patrick's Church at two o'clock.

AN entertainment will be given by the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the residence of Charles Phister, this (Monday) evening, at half-past seven o'clock. Ice cream, cake and fruit will be offered at moderate prices. There will be music and recitations. A dime will be charged at the door. The object is to raise means to modernize the Sabbath school room. The patronage of the public is solicited.

AT Owingsville, Mary Rosa Jones has brought suit against James Lansdown for $10,000 damages for failing to keep his promise to marry her. The parties occupy a high social position in their community. Miss Jones has employed the ablest legal talent to be had. She is twenty-one years of age, and there has never been any thing said against her character. Lansdown, it is understood, admits the promise of marriage, but wants to set his own time for it.

OWENS & BARKLEY call the attention of the farmers to the fact that they have the agency for the sale of the celebrated Ross cutters, both hand and power, also lever cutters, which will be sold for less money than they can be bought anywhere else. They have a large stock of "O & B." and Haven's roller and lever cutters at very low prices. Full stock of hoes, rakes, forks, shovels, picks, mattocks, &c., &c. They invite all interested in such goods to call and see them and get prices. Having sold about three hundred plows, they have a few left at low prices.

ISRAELITES OF GERMANY.

THEY OFFER FERVENT PETITIONS FOR FREDERICK'S HEALTH.

King John Ready to Compromise—The French Cabinet Resign—Boulangierism Rampant—Prison Treatment of Mr. Gilholly—Fires in Europe—Other News.

LONDON, April 2.—Emperor Frederick may be assured that the prayers of one portion of his subjects for his ultimate recovery are by no means perfunctory or half-hearted. No petitions on his behalf are so earnest as the fervent supplication offered by the Israelites in his realm, that the new ruler's days may be long in the land.

One reason of the Empress Victoria's unpopularity while crown princess was her well known abhorrence of the crusade against the Jews and her detestation of Herr Stoecker and his aristocratic supporters. Her husband was led by her to view the matter in the same light, as his course since the death of his father has fully proved. The breach between the crown prince and his mother has been widened by the favors shown to the, to him, obnoxious race at her instance, and the Junker party, those who have committed themselves to the Jew batters, and those who worship the rising sun stand by Prince William.

They have chosen their role, and any improvement in the emperor's health means a postponement of their hopes and plans. The more lengthened the delay the more bitter will be the feeling on their part against the Jews, and the more severe and prompt their warfare against them when they are permitted to resume the hunt interrupted by the accession of Frederick III. The success of the Hebrews in finance and trade, in art and letters, has aroused a hatred against them which few people other than Germans can fully comprehend. The envy of the higher classes at the wealth, and the frequently injudicious display of it reveals itself in the persecutions and slanders expended upon the Hebrews, and the lower orders do not need much encouragement to do the bidding of their superiors.

In the repite which they are at present enjoying, the leading Hebrews of Germany are consulting with their brethren in England and France concerning the best course to pursue in the event of the succession to power of their enemies. Of course, the interests of the great majority are so identified with the land which is their hope that they cannot leave it without making ruinous sacrifices of their business, and others are too proud to fly before the threatening storm, but it has been determined to assist those who wish to emigrate and who are qualified to earn their living in other countries.

The United States will doubtless receive a share of the new exodus which may possibly assume large proportions. The contest between a clique which proposes to restore the medieval methods of dealing with the Hebrews, and a race possessing the wealth, intelligence and energy which has ever characterized them, will be one that will awake the sympathy of the civilized world for the latter and present an interesting subject for the consideration of the thoughtful.

King John Wants to Compromise.

MASSOWAH, April 2.—Italian scouts who have penetrated the camp of the Abyssinians report that King John and his commanders are convinced of their inability to attack the Italian forces and are ready to compromise. The Italian government has authorized Gen. San Marzano to accept the following terms: The Italians are to retain the positions which they now occupy, and King John is not to oppose the occupation of other points when the Italian army may wish to pass the hot season. Safety must also be guaranteed to the tribes which are under Italian protection.

The French Cabinet Overthrown.

PARIS, April 2.—The chamber of deputies, by a vote of 208 to 237, despite the opposition of the government, voted for urgency for the extreme left bill, providing for the revision of the constitution. The government thereupon resigned, and later in the day, President Carnot accepted its resignation. The motion for urgency was proposed by M. Laguerre, the foremost upholder of Boulangier, and his faction count it for victory.

President Carnot is expected to ask M. Floquet to form a cabinet. Floquet was elected speaker of the chamber in 1885 on the overthrow of the Ferry cabinet. He occupies a position in the French party hodge-podge, between the conservative Republicans and Extremists.

Knocked Him Down and Dressed Him.
DUBLIN, April 2.—Mr. Gilholly, member of parliament, who was sentenced to two weeks imprisonment for assaulting a police inspector, in addition to the sentence of two months previously imposed for offenses under the crimes act, was removed from the Cork jail to-day. In the Schull jail this morning Mr. Gilholly refused to dress when ordered to do so by the police who were to escort him to Cork. The police thereupon knocked him down, pulled on his trousers and took him away. A small crowd saw him depart, but made no demonstration.

Fires in Europe.

VIENNA, April 2.—One woman and five children perished in the fire which devastated Kalkinda, Hungary.

All of the public buildings and one hundred stores and dwellings were burned at Skale, Austria.

Several lives were lost and 600 persons rendered homeless by fire in Streh, Hungary. Three villages were burned near Carlstadt, Croatia.

Bulgaria on the Alert.

SOFIA, April 2.—Bulgaria has asked the porte to explain the presence of Turkish troops at the town of Mustapha Pasha, on the frontier.

The town is located on the railway line between Constantinople and Sofia. It would seem to indicate that the porte is yielding to some new Russian pressure, and that Ferdinand is to be dethroned by force.

Funeral of Edmund Dwyer Gray.

DUBLIN, April 2.—The funeral of Edmund Dwyer Gray, editor of Freeman's Journal, took place to-day at Glasnevin. The cemetery was crowded with friends of the late editor. No speeches were made.

The steamship New Haven, laden with potatoes, and accompanied by two gunboats, has started from Dublin for the Aurora Islands to relieve the families that are in a starving condition there.

Powder Magazine Explosion.

ATHENS, April 2.—A powder magazine in the fortress on the island of Santa Maura exploded yesterday. At last accounts a fire was raging in the fortress, and it was feared that two other magazines would explode. The loss of life is not as yet known. The inhabitants of the adjacent town have deserted their homes.

Foreign Notes.

The Russian government proposes to send the majority of Russian convicts to prison instead of deporting them to Siberia.

Half the district of Lunenburg is inundated, and fifteen villages are submerged. Eight persons have been drowned and 400 are homeless. The river Elbe is rising.

The Roumanian chamber of deputies rejected a motion censuring the government for arresting members of the chamber implicated in the recent riots, and adopted a vote of confidence in the ministry—87 to 36.
